ORDER

AND NOW, this 19th day of December 2023, upon consideration of Plaintiff Lindell Moore's motion to proceed in forma pauperis (DI 1), and amended complaint (DI 4) it is

ORDERED:

1. Plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (DI 1) is GRANTED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.
2. The Amended Complaint is DEEMED filed.
3. The Amended Complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for the reasons stated in the Court's Memorandum.
4. Mr. Moore may file a second amended complaint no later than January 18, 2024.

Any second amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the second amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the second amended complaint and shall state the basis for Mr. Moore's claims against each defendant. The second amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Amended Complaint or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his second amended complaint, Mr. Moore should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial Amended Complaint as explained in the Court's Memorandum. Upon the filing of a second amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

5. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Mr. Moore a blank copy of this Court's current standard form to be used by a self-represented litigant filing a civil action bearing the above-captioned civil action number. Mr. Moore may use this form to file his second amended complaint if he chooses to do so.

6. If Mr. Moore does not wish to further amend and instead intends to stand on his Amended Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court no later than January 18, 2024 stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Amended Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976)); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" when the district court "expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims").

7. If Mr. Moore fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Mr. Moore intends to stand on his Amended Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.¹ See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).
